Monthly News for You

February 2011 SALE-A-BRATION is here!

It's Sale-A-Bration time at Stampin' Up! – so what does that mean? It means everyone can earn FREE Stampin' Up! products. How? There are three easy ways....

1. {spend}... Spend $50 (before s&h and tax) and earn one free Sale-A-Bration product of your choice.
Spend $100 and earn two, etc.
2. {host}..... Host a workshop of at least $300 (before s&h and tax), and earn one free Sale-A-Bration product in addition to the generous hostess benefits.
3. {join} Join Stampin' Up! by becoming a demonstrator during Sale-A-Bration and get 15% off your Starter Kit. Plus, get a bonus bundle filled with over $50 in free products.

This years' Sale-A-Bration products include 4 exclusive stamp sets, a Designer Series Paper & Quick Accents pack, a Ribbon & Button pack, a Digital Content CD for My Digital Studio, and Chalkboard Decor Elements. And if those don't suit your fancy there are more than 50 stamp sets that you can choose from the 2010-2011 Idea Book & Catalog! Call me today to schedule your own workshop or check my class schedule and join me for a class.

This month you can also celebrate with me – this is my 5 year anniversary as a Stampin’ Up! Demonstrator. I have completed 5 years today! My 6th year begins tomorrow. I joined at this time of year because of the Sale-A-Bration special. I was able to get my starter kit and an extra stamp set and then my first order earned an extra 10% bonus and more free Sale-A-Bration sets. And my first sales minimum wasn’t due until the end of June – giving me extra time to get started if I needed it. But I hit the ground running and scheduled my first few workshops and my first class right away. It was so much fun I haven’t looked back. And thanks to all of you I have loved every minute and so appreciate all of your support. I wanted to do some different things this month to celebrate my anniversary.

First I am planning a SAMPLE SALE all month long. I’ll be cleaning out all my samples that I have made and collected for the last five years. So when you come to my house this month you can shop the sample sale – there will be cards, card fronts, 3-Ds and gifts. I may even have some class kits – with all the consumables cut and you can finish how you want.

Second – how about some Bingo? For the month of February you will earn a Bingo card for every $50 your order and in March we will play Bingo to win prizes. You’ll want to check my blog (or sign up for daily updates) so that you can see the Bingo pieces that get called. I’ll send out more details and instructions at the end of February along with your earned Bingo cards.

Check out my class schedule and the details of my Ribbon Share for February. I hope to see you soon.

My Digital Studio Updates

If you have purchased My Digital Studio make sure that you register and select to receive email updates from Stampin' Up!

They will be sending out a monthly email to all registered users with a list of all the download releases for the month. I will be posting them on my blog as they get released - CLICK HERE to go there and also to see projects I have created with MDS. You can order the Digital Downloads through my online store - CLICK HERE. I have started My Digital Studio classes - there will be one each month. Ask me for more details.

Make sure to join MyDigitalStudio.net where you can find all things about MDS and if you go back and look through the blog posts I was a guest blogger on January 21st for the Project 52 challenge. The header of this newsletter and my signature at the bottom where both created with MDS.

If you would like to see more projects that I have been creating - visit my blog at <http://monikastamp.wordpress.com/>

Here are some scrapbook pages that I have created using My Digital Studio - look for details on my blog:

Thanks so much for always supporting me! I am so excited to have another successful year!

I LOVE being your Stampin' Up! Demonstrator!

Happy Stamping!
